

Time on Clocks

The number around the clock count the hours, but they count minutes, too. Each number marks one hour, and it also marks five minutes.

One notch is one hour. Count by ones around the clock and fill in the missing numbers.

One notch is five minutes. Count by fives around the clock and fill in the missing numbers.